

LUTHERAN SUMMER MUSIC

ACADEMY & FESTIVAL

LSM 2017 in Review

As we watched students say goodbye to their friends, teachers, and counselors, it is clear that Lutheran Summer Music continues to be a precious experience for young musicians. This summer, students traveled from over 20 states to join us for our 36th summer in faith and music on the campus of Valparaiso University.

We are grateful for the many successes this summer, including a beautiful Bach Cantata Worship service of "Ein feste Burg ist unser Gott," three incredible concerts performed by our Festival Band, Choir, and Orchestra, and the use of Facebook Live to share these inspirational moments with the LSM community online. We are thrilled that thousands of friends, relatives, and alums were able to engage with our community in this way.

We encourage you to follow us on Facebook to stay up to date with LSM or to relive the magic that occurred this summer. For complete photo albums from LSM 2017, please visit our LSM Flickr Page.

In the Spotlight: Graduating Alumni

Congratulations to our graduating alumni attending Lutheran colleges and universities this fall. We have witnessed their many musical accomplishments and faithful participation in worship over the years and couldn't be more proud of their success through our program.

We wish these fine young musicians all the best in their future pursuits as they carry their God-given talents forward in their own communities.

Thank you for being a part of LSM!
